

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 3, 2016

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I cannot tell you how honored and happy I am to have been appointed Pastor of this great Parish. I loved my eight years in the Bronx at St. Francis Xavier and it was not easy to leave there. The transition has certainly been made so much easier, and even a joy, in coming back to a Parish that I already love. I look forward to seeing all of you again, and to working with Fr. Javier and Fr. Benedict over the Summer. I was sorry to hear that Fr. Michael Moon was also transferred. I wish him all the best and I understand he will be back in the Fall for a farewell Mass. I know losing Monsignor Giandurco is a blow to all of you. He is, in my opinion, the finest priest in the Archdiocese of New York. I learned so much from him in the two years I was blessed to serve with him. I cannot promise that I will be anywhere near as good or capable as Monsignor, but I can promise that I will love and serve you with all my heart, mind, soul, and strength.

It is a blessing to begin my time here as your Pastor on this Fourth of July Weekend as we celebrate the birth of our great Nation and the freedom with which we have been so richly blessed. Our freedom is a great gift and a great responsibility. May we never be deceived by the thinking of the modern age that sees freedom as a license to do whatever we want, rather than a solemn responsibility to do what we ought - to seek what is good, virtuous, and true. In the writings of the Fathers of our Country who framed the Constitution, it is clear that they understood well that only a religious and moral people are capable of governing themselves without falling into decline. They understood well, that authentic freedom can never be divorced from God, the author of our freedom, and His Divine Law. That is the principle upon which our great nation was built, and that is the only foundation upon which it will stand secure for generations to come.

May God always watch over and bless the United States of America which we love so much. May He bless the heroes of our past and present who sacrificed their lives to win and preserve our freedom. And may He continue to bless this beautiful Parish of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. May we always pray for each other, and continue to grow stronger as a Community rich in faith, hope, and love. May God bless us all.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Matthew J. Furey
