

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 21, 2015

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

First of all, Happy Father's Day to all Fathers! That includes Fathers, Grandfathers, Godfathers, Step-Fathers and all Father figures. We don't want to leave anyone off the list as we express gratitude and prayers. The Church often holds up Saint Joseph as a model of fatherly protection, care and guidance and we invoke his intercession on this Father's Day. We should also think of the entire Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph on Father's Day (and Mother's Day) as we ask for all the heavenly blessings for families. The Lord knows we all need all the blessings we can receive in these challenging times.

The Summer Season officially arrives this day and I hope that all of us, individuals and families, will be able to enjoy good weather and some relaxing, enjoyable times this summer. Not everyone gets a real vacation or break, but perhaps a little restful change of pace is possible.

As usual, our priests will have some time off and Fr. Javier will be here for July and August to help cover Masses and duties. Fr. Ginel first and then Fr. Moon will be away. I plan on taking time when possible. Now that all of the major events in the parish have taken place and there is a bit of a seasonal lull, summer is a good time for priests to take a break. As I mentioned, I wish it were true for everyone, but it isn't always.

We will be starting our new summer weekend Mass schedule on July 4th and 5th. (See the new schedule in the next column.) Hopefully, our people understand the different reasons for cutting back a bit on number of Masses and it will not be too disruptive. We have to think of the present and the future and serve our parish as best we can.

If we stay together as a family in Christ centered around the Mass and all the sacraments, nothing will be able to separate us from God's love. Blessings to all!

Sincerely in Christ,

Congratulations all Graduates!
